Perspectives on Leadership

Sacramento Metro Chamber hosted nearly 800 people for its 2016 Perspectives on Leadership event at the Sacramento Convention Center.

The theme for the Oct. 7 event was “Redefining the Rules.” Speakers included a female fighter pilot, a mountaineer and a former Miss America contestant. They, along with other local leaders, shared stories about the importance of failure and significance of risk.

2 Martha Lofgren and Roy Brewer, both of Brewer Lofgren LLP, Tina Polley, a candidate for SMUD director, and Sarah Barkawi of The Honey Agency.

3 Jade Simmons, a concert pianist and former Miss America contestant, was one of the speakers during the event.
